

CALL FOR PAPERS [GENERAL SECTION]

aspeers: emerging voices in american studies
Call for Submissions by 28 October 2018

aspeers is the first and currently only peer-reviewed print journal for MA-level American studies scholars in Europe. It is a platform for the best work done by American studies graduate students below the PhD level. It aims to foster academic exchange among young Americanists across Europe, and to thereby advance the field as well as its genuine European perspective on 'America' and its presences and effects around the world. aspeers features a general section in addition to a topical one that brings academic and creative works into a dialogue on one common theme.

For the general section of its twelfth issue, aspeers seeks outstanding academic writing demonstrating the excellence of graduate scholarship, the range of concerns scrutinized in the field, and the diversity of perspectives employed. We thus explicitly invite revised versions of term papers or chapters from theses written by students of European Master (and equivalent) programs. For this section, there are no topical limitations. Contributions should be up to 7,500 words (including abstract and list of works cited). The submission deadline is 28 October 2018.

aspeers 12 (2019) will also contain a topical section organized around the theme "American Anger." We encourage European MA-level students to submit papers on this topic in particular. Please consult our topical Call for Submissions at www.aspeers.com/2019.
